

Nonprofit Management

WASHINGTON
& JEFFERSON
COLLEGE

The minor in nonprofit management addresses the historical, legal, ethical and social basis of the growing field of nonprofit organizations. Additionally, topics such as leadership, governance, fundraising, accountability, budgeting, and personnel/ethical issues are discussed.

Minor Requirements

- Financial Accounting (ACC 211)
- Public Policy (PPL 213)
- Social Problems (SOC 220)
- Processes of American Government (POL 111)
- Public Administration (POL 310)
- One course from the following:
 - Professional Writing (ENG 201)
 - Public Speaking (COM 221)
 - Intro to Public Relations (COM 281)
 - Entrepreneurship, Business & Society (BUS 201)
 - Principles of Management & Organizational Behavior (BUS 301)
 - Principles of Marketing (BUS 307)
 - Human Resource Management (BUS 350)
 - Business Data Analytics (BUS 316)
 - Data Mining (CIS 241)
 - Social Innovation (ENT 397)
 - Governmental and Not-for-profit Accounting (ACC 36)
 - Sociology of Gender (SOC 240)
 - Race and Ethnicity (SOC 241)
 - Economics of the Public Sector (ECN 322)
 - Information Visualization (CIS 245)

Major Pairings

The nonprofit management minor is for any student who is interested in applying their learning in a nonprofit setting after graduation. Students that may benefit from this new course of study include those studying:

- Finance
- Business
- Political Science
- Public Policy
- Sociology

Department Chair

Mary Ryan, Ph.D.
mryan@washjeff.edu

Program Website

washjeff.edu/nonprofit-management